

System Integration Engineer / System Integration Executive

Responsibility:

- a) To complete the tenders and quotations within the pre-determined time.
- b) To support the team in the cost estimation, preparation of tenders, quotation, compiling technical literatures and preparation of variations quote.
- c) To support and provide AV system information, specifications, configurations, products characteristics and their required functions to the technical department during interacking, installations, testing and commissioning stages.
- d) To monitor and develop an intimate technical knowledge on current and coming Audio Visual products in the market and use it to the competitive advantage of the company.
- e) To be equipped with the latest integration techniques and knowledge to ensure quality and cost competitive sales submissions.
- f) Any other responsibilities that management may assign from time to time.

Qualification :

- a) Bachelor's Degree or Diploma in Electronics, Electrical, IT, Audio Engineering or equivalent.

Skills, Experience & Competency Required :

- a) Minimum 1 year working experience in related field
- b) Possess basic understanding of AV-IT product and system integration techniques.
- c) Understand customers' needs with ability to innovate customer value proposition.
- d) Team-oriented, Independent and resourceful.
- e) Proficient in written and spoken English, Bahasa Malaysia, MS office software and understand technology advancement.

Application procedure :

Qualified applicants are encouraged to send their official resume to hrad@avms.com.my.